CANNIBAL LIQUOR HOUSE COLLABORATES WITH NYC'S LEADING CHEFS TO RAISE MONEY IN THE FIGHT AGAINST HUNGER

Christian Pappanicholas and Chef Ed Carew of The Cannibal Liquor House are partnering with New York City's leading chefs in the fight against hunger. Each month, The Cannibal Liquor House will feature a new "Collaboration Burger", developed by a variety of guest chefs, including Travis Flood, Lentine Alexis, Hillary Sterling, Bryan Voltaggio and many more. Proceeds from the monthly #CollabBurger will be donated to Chefs Cycle For No Kid Hungry.

October's burger, which combines the most delicious aspects of lunch and dinner together in one mouthwatering dish, was created by chef, restaurateur and cyclist Jeff Mahin, of California, and owner of Stella Barra Pizzeria, Summer House Santa Monica, M Street Kitchen and Do-Rite Donut. This monster is stacked high with hash browns, a burger patty, bacon, and a runny egg, all held together by an english muffin!

According to Mahin, "This burger is an ode to all chefs who never get a good breakfast because they are either working it or sleeping through it because they worked a late shift. Anytime I work brunch, I grab all the leftovers at the end of the shift, like maple syrup, hash browns, burger patties, and just build up whatever I can find. And man, it turns into a hell of a burger."

The food at The Cannibal Liquor House is burgers, cocktails and bar food. Our menu is perfect for cocktails from house made potato chips, beef jerky and raw bar to a proper selection of burgers and seasonable vegetables. Our cocktail program is balanced between house cocktails and classic cocktails. It's accented by sections of large format, beer and shots, and light cocktails you might drink early in the morning "morning tippie."

Chefs Cycle is a fundraising endurance event featuring award-winning chefs and members of the culinary community fighting hunger outside the kitchen. For the past three years, Chefs Cycle has engaged culinary talents who want to push their limits by completing a three day, 300-mile ride while raising funds and awareness in support of No Kid Hungry.
